CAIL JUDICIAL SERVICE TRAINING ACADEMY

CAIL Judicial Service Training Academy Judges are held in high esteem in our society. A judge is responsible for enforcing justice in the society, making impartial decisions, interpret laws, and settle disputes. As it is a highly coveted post, it requires special personal skills such as patience, impartiality, self-confidence, commitment and a deep sense of integrity. Apart from these, a person must also have genuine practical knowledge of the laws and analytical ability to interpret and apply them. Judicial Service Training Program of Christ Academy Institute of Law has been created with the mission of imparting clinical legal education and to train the students on different footings in order to make them conversant and familiar with the current Judicial system of the country and to visualize their aim of decorating the chair by being a Judicial officer through their hard work coupled with valuable guidance imparted by CAIL. CAIL recognizes the preparation woes of students and has developed a comprehensive curriculum to cover most of the syllabus for the Judicial Service exams.

MISSION & VISION

- To bridge the knowledge gap and hone the core competencies by developing a multi-dimensional approach in the aspirants, in order to produce committed leaders in the legal profession.
- To instil the students with a sense of justice and righteousness.
- To ensure that the students constantly strive forward by reinforcing ethical values, honesty, Sincerity and integrity.
- To uphold the virtue of quality delivery with emphasis on holistic guidance for law and its related disciplines in an ambience which is conducive to learning.
- To groom the professionals and provide the foundation for dealing with the needs of society. The Students of CAIL foster a sense of social awareness to become active participants in shaping the legal profession in the future.
