Dear Students,

Subject: 1st Intra-Collegiate Client Counselling Competition

*Greetings from the Centre for Practical Advocacy Training!

The Centre for Practical Advocacy Training (CPAT) is pleased to announce the 1st Intra-Collegiate Client Counselling Competition to be held on April 7, 2025. The Client Counselling Competition is designed to enhance law students' understanding of the practical dimensions of legal practice, with a particular focus on client interaction, advisory functions, and preventive lawyering. The competition provides a dynamic platform for participants to develop and refine crucial skills such as interviewing, active listening, problem identification, legal analysis, and strategic planning—core competencies essential for any practicing lawyer. The competition is exclusively open to the students of 3rd Year, 4thYear & 5thYear.

All the 4th year and 5th year students are required to register for participation as counsels, while students from the 3rd year shall register as clients and observers. Participation is mandatory for all students of the aforementioned batches.

Students must complete the registration on or before 28th March, 2025 by 11:59 PM.

The registration link is attached below:

About the Client Counselling Competition

The Client Counselling Competition is designed to enhance law students' understanding of the practical dimensions of legal practice, with a particular focus on client interaction, advisory functions, and preventive lawyering. The competition provides a dynamic platform for participants to develop and refine crucial skills such as interviewing, active listening, problem identification, legal analysis, and strategic planning—core competencies essential for any practicing lawyer.

A significant portion of legal work revolves around advising clients, understanding their concerns, and providing well-reasoned solutions within the framework of the law. While it is often assumed that lawyers naturally possess the ability to listen, question, and analyse effectively, these skills require deliberate practice and refinement. The Client Counselling Competition bridges this gap by simulating real-world client interactions, enabling students to experience the complexities of legal consultation first-hand.

Beyond honing technical skills, the competition fosters an invaluable educational and professional exchange between students, law faculty, and legal practitioners. It encourages participants to approach client interactions with empathy, professionalism, and a problem-solving mindset, reinforcing the importance of ethical and client-centered legal practice. Through this initiative, students gain deeper insights into the lawyer-client relationship, preparing them for the realities of legal practice while contributing to their overall professional growth.

1. Code of Conduct

1) The Dress code shall strictly be the college uniform.
2) The Competition will be conducted in English and the mode of communication between the participants during the rounds shall be in English.
3) The use of electronics during the rounds is strictly prohibited and if found, will lead to the immediate disqualification of the team.
4) Any participant found to have deviated from any rule may be disqualified at the discretion of organizers and the decision will be final.

2. Competition Format

The Client Counselling Competition replicates a real-world law office consultation, where two law students act as lawyers handling a client matter. Each team receives a brief written memorandum outlining the general nature of the client's issue prior to the interview session. This memorandum serves as an initial guide, but the students must navigate the consultation independently to identify and address the client's concerns effectively.

3. Procedure of the Competition

1) There will be two Stages in the Competition, viz.
   a) client interviewing and counselling; and
   b) post-interview and counselling stage, without client.
2) The teams shall have a maximum of 20 minutes, of which 12 minutes are allocated for client interviewing and counselling. The remaining 8 minutes shall be for the post-interview Stage to discuss among themselves (the team) and summarize how they will go about dealing with the case.
3) During the First Stage of 12 minutes as mentioned above, if necessary, the teams can access primary or secondary sources for research. Throughout this stage, participants are expected to actively listen, ask relevant questions, extract crucial details, assess the client's desired outcomes, and outline the legal problem. They must also provide legal advice by suggesting potential solutions or a range of alternatives suited to the client's needs.
4) During the Second Stage of the post-interview period of 8 minutes as mentioned above, when the client will not be present, the teams shall have to summarize the interview, analyse the problem, and indicate the course of action to be undertaken. During this period, the Judges may also seek clarification/s from the teams regarding their approach and analysis of the issues.
5) In both Stages, one member of the team will take the lead role and the other a supplementary role.
6) There should be good coordination between the two team members throughout the 20 minutes

4. Judging Criteria

The competition shall be judged on the basis of the following criteria:

1) Professionalism and Client Rapport
   a) Establishing a comfortable and professional environment for the client.
   b) Demonstrating empathy, respect, and ethical conduct.
2) Eliciting Relevant Information
   a) Effectively using questioning and listening techniques to gather key facts.
   b) Identifying the client's concerns, goals, and expectations.

3) Problem Analysis and Legal Understanding
   a) Accurately diagnosing the legal and factual aspects of the client's issue.
   b) Demonstrating sound legal reasoning and issue-spotting skills.
4) Providing Advice and Exploring Alternatives
   a) Presenting clear, practical, and legally sound solutions.
   b) Guiding the client toward an informed decision by outlining potential courses of action.
5) Teamwork and Post-Consultation Reflection
   a) Collaborating effectively as a team in both the interview and analysis stages.
   b) Providing a structured post-consultation discussion, assessing next steps and case strategy.

5. Clients

1) The organizers are responsible for selecting students to play the role of the Client for each of the sessions.
2) The organizers will provide each Client sufficient briefing prior to the Rounds. Clients may be consulted by the judging panel, at their discretion, at the conclusion of a round.

6. Office Memo

On 05-04-2025, an office memorandum will be sent by the organizers to the registered teams, which will briefly outline the general nature of the topic/subject for the competition.

7. Theme

The central theme of the problem will be based on Family Law and incidentally it may touch other laws, which includes Penal laws and Constitutional law.

8. Competition Rounds

1) The Judge will evaluate the participants for a maximum of 100 marks independently, based on the judging criteria.
2) The team with the best score from each 'chamber' will proceed to the semi-finals.
3) From the semi-finals, best four teams will compete in the final round.
4) In case of a tie for 4th place, all the tied teams will be eligible to go to the final round.
5) These numbers are subject to change based on the number of participating teams.
6) The organizers are entitled to change the format of the competition, without prior intimation.

Name : Mrs. Akansha Kumar

Age : 58 yr

Occupation : Homemaker

Mr. Ashok Kumar, a 60-year-old Hindu male, has recently passed away, leaving behind his wife, Mrs. Kumar (58), and three children: two sons, Rohan (26) and Aryan (24, Content Writer), and a daughter, Koina (22). Mr. Kumar's estate consists of a large ancestral property, which has been in the family for generations, as well as several other properties and assets acquired during his lifetime. The family hails from Madhya Pradesh and the property is all registered in Madhya Pradesh.

The problem arises when Mrs. Kumar and the children discover that Mr. Kumar had made a Will 5 years back, which leaves the majority of his estate to his younger son, Aryan (who at that time had turned 18 and had been doted upon by Mr. Kumar a lot), with only a small bequest to his wife and older son, Rohan. Koina, the daughter, is not mentioned in the will at all. The timeline of the Will's creation coincides with Mr. Kumar's diagnosis with cancer, during which he was undergoing extensive medical treatment, including chemotherapy. This context raises questions about the validity of the Will, the adequacy of provisions made for the surviving family members, and whether the estate is being distributed in accordance with Hindu law.

The ancestral property comprises of 60% of the total property of Mr. Kumar and his self-acquired property during his lifetime consists of the 20%. The remaining 20% of the assets and property has been given to OldIsGold Vriddhashram located near Bhopal.

Mrs. Kumar and the children are seeking your advice as a lawyer specializing in Hindu Law to determine their rights and options under the law.

Relevant Provisions:

- Section 59, Indian Succession Act, 1925: Requires that a person making a Will must be of sound mind and mentally capable of understanding the nature of the document.
- Section 61, Indian Succession Act, 1925: Allows for the revocation or alteration of a Will by the testator if done under duress or lack of mental capacity.
- Section 63, Indian Succession Act, 1925: A Will must be duly attested by two or more witnesses for validity, ensuring the testator's actions are voluntary.
- Section 9, Hindu Succession Act, 1956:Provides that the self-acquired property of a male Hindu will devolve on heirs if he dies intestate, and gives rights to legal heirs.
- Section 15, Hindu Succession Act, 1956:The widow is entitled to a share in her husband's estate along with the children.
- Section 16, Hindu Succession Act, 1956: Daughters have equal inheritance rights to both ancestral and self-acquired property of their father.
- Section 18, Hindu Adoption and Maintenance Act, 1956: Entitles a widow to maintenance from her husband's estate, even if the Will provides insufficient support.
- Section 23, Hindu Succession Act, 1956: Prohibits the testator from completely alienating ancestral property without consideration of coparceners' rights.
- Section 30, Hindu Succession Act, 1956: Allows a Hindu male to dispose of his self-acquired property through a Will, but ancestral property remains subject to coparceners' rights.
- Section 61, Indian Succession Act, 1925: (Undue Influence and Mental Capacity): A Will made under undue influence, coercion, or during compromised mental capacity (due to illness) may be declared invalid.

Client Name : Mr. Rafiq Hassan
Age : 50
Occupation : Fisherman Community Leader
Issue : Legal uncertainty over land ownership due to Wakf Board's claim

Mr. Rafiq Hassan, a leader of the local fishing community, has approached legal counsel regarding a complex land dispute that threatens the homes and livelihoods of several families. The community has resided on a 400-acre coastal land parcel for generations, under the belief that their land ownership is legally valid. However, recent developments have cast doubt on the legitimacy of their title deeds, leading to legal and financial uncertainty.

Background Information (To Be Extracted from the Client):

Historical Ownership: The land was initially leased by Mr. Yousuf Ibrahim from the erstwhile royal family. After his demise, his successor, Mr. Karim Ibrahim, formally registered the land in his name and later donated it to Noor Educational Trust in 1950.

Acquisition by the Community: Between 1987 and 1993, Noor Educational Trust sold parcels of land to members of the fishing community, issuing them title deeds in exchange for payment.

Wakf Board Intervention: In 2019, the State Wakf Board declared the land as Wakf property and directed the Revenue Department to cease accepting land tax payments, citing its religious endowment status.

Government Action & Legal Proceedings: In 2022, the state government issued an order instructing the Revenue Department to resume collecting land tax, suggesting recognition of the community's ownership claims. However, the High Court intervened and stayed the government's decision, leaving the legal status of the land unresolved.

Client Concerns (To Be Explored in the Consultation):

- Are the title deeds issued by Noor Educational Trust legally enforceable?
    - The enforceability depends on whether the trust had valid ownership at the time of transfer; if the land was Wakf property, the transfer may be void under Section 51 of the Wakf Act, 1995.
- Can the community claim ownership based on possession and past transactions?
    - Adverse possession generally does not apply to Wakf property, so mere possession or past transactions may not establish ownership unless it was never Wakf land.
- Can a property be declared as Wakf land decades after being transferred to an educational trust?
    - Yes, under Section 40 of the Wakf Act, 1995, if evidence proves it was originally dedicated as Wakf, but the trust can challenge this with legal proof of ownership.
- Does the Wakf Act, 1995, apply retroactively to properties donated before its enactment?
    - The Act applies to all Wakf properties, including those created before 1995, but it cannot undo lawful transactions made before its enactment.
- What is the significance of the state government's decision to resume land tax collection?
    - Land tax collection suggests the government treats the property as private, not Wakf, but this alone does not determine legal ownership.
- How does the High Court's stay order affect property rights?
    - The stay order maintains the status quo, temporarily halting tax collection and preventing irreversible actions until a final decision is made.
- What are the possible outcomes if the court upholds the Wakf Board's declaration?
    - The property will be recognized as Wakf land, prior transactions may be voided, and the trust or current occupants could lose their rights.
- Will eviction be a possible consequence of an adverse ruling?
    - Yes, under Section 54 of the Wakf Act, 1995, unauthorized occupants may face eviction if the property is ruled as Wakf land.

Name : Mrs. Rukmini

Age : 35 yr

Occupation : Part-time Teacher

Mrs. Rukmini, a 35-year-old Hindu woman, has been married to Mr. Rajesh, a 40-year-old Hindu man, for 10 years. They have two children, a son aged 8 and a daughter aged 6. The couple was married in a traditional Hindu ceremony in 2012, and they have been living together in a joint family with Mr. Rajesh's parents and younger brother.

Initially, the marriage was happy, and Mrs. Rukmini was well-respected by her in-laws. However, over the past 5 years, Mr. Rajesh has been having an extramarital affair with Ms. Priya, a 28-year-old woman who works as a marketing executive in a private company. Mr. Rajesh met Ms. Priya through a common friend, and they started a romantic relationship. Despite Mrs. Rukmini's repeated attempts to reconcile with her husband, Mr. Rajesh has continued to pursue his relationship with Ms. Priya.

As a result of Mr. Rajesh's infidelity, the marriage has become strained, and Mrs. Rukmini has been subjected to emotional and psychological abuse. Mr. Rajesh has been neglecting his family and refusing to provide maintenance, forcing Mrs. Rukmini to take care of the children on her own. Mrs. Rukmini has been working part-time as a teacher to make ends meet, but she is struggling to provide for her children's education and other expenses.

Recently, Mr. Rajesh has expressed his desire to adopt a child from Ms. Priya, citing that he wants to provide a stable family environment for the child. Ms. Priya is pregnant with Mr. Rajesh's child, and he wants to legitimize the child by adopting it. Mrs. Rukmini is opposed to this idea and wants to know her rights under the Hindu Adoption and Maintenance Act.

Mrs. Rukmini is also concerned about the impact of the adoption on her existing children. She fears that the adoption will create a rift between her children and the new child, and that Mr. Rajesh will favor the new child over their existing children. Mrs. Rukmini is also worried about the financial implications of the adoption, as she is already struggling to make ends meet. ons of the adoption, as she is already struggling to make ends meet.

Mrs. Rukmini and Mr. Rajesh have a joint bank account, which is used to manage the family's finances. Mr. Rajesh has a separate bank account, which he uses to manage his personal finances, including his expenses related to Ms. Priya. Mrs. Rukmini has been paying the school fees and other expenses for the children from her own income. Mr. Rajesh has been providing some financial support to the family, but it is irregular and insufficient. Mrs. Rukmini's parents are retired and live in a different city. They are not in a position to provide financial support to Mrs. Rukmini and her children.

Relevant Provisions:

- Section 7 of the Hindu Adoption and Maintenance Act, 1956, states that a Hindu male can adopt a child with the consent of his wife, unless the wife has been declared incompetent to give such consent by a court.
- Section 8 of the Hindu Adoption and Maintenance Act, 1956, states that the adoption of a child by a Hindu male shall be void if it is made without the consent of his wife, unless the wife has been declared incompetent to give such consent by a court.
- Section 18 of the Hindu Adoption and Maintenance Act, 1956, states that a Hindu male is bound to maintain his wife and children.
- Section 20 of the Hindu Adoption and Maintenance Act, 1956, states that a Hindu wife is entitled to maintenance from her husband if he has neglected or refused to maintain her.
- Section 21 of the Hindu Adoption and Maintenance Act, 1956, states that a Hindu wife is entitled to maintenance from her husband if he has deserted her.
- Petition for divorce under the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955, citing cruelty and adultery as a ground for divorce.

Office Memorandum

1st Intra Collegiate Client Counselling Competition

April 7, 2025

Client I: Mrs. Akansha Kumar

Mr. Ashok Kumar, a male from Madhya Pradesh, passed away due to being terminally ill, leaving behind his wife and three children. A Will made five years ago gives most of his estate to the younger son, with minimal provisions for the wife and elder son, and no mention of daughter. The Will was created during Mr. Kumar's period of treatment, raising concerns about its validity.

Client II: Mr. Rafiq Hassan

Mr. Rafiq Hassan, a leader of the local fishing community, has approached legal counsel regarding a complex land dispute that threatens the homes and livelihoods of several families. The community has resided on a 400-acre coastal land parcel for generations, under the belief that their land ownership is legally valid. However, recent developments have cast doubt on the legitimacy of their title deeds, leading to legal and financial uncertainty, as the property is being claimed as waqf.

Client III: Mrs. Rukmini

Mrs. Rukmini, a Hindu woman, has been married to Mr. Rajesh, with two children. Their marriage has been facing problems for some time due to Mr. Rajesh's extramarital affair. Mr. Rajesh now wants to adopt his mistress's child, which is opposed by Mrs. Rukmini. She fears repercussions on herself, children and finance and seeks advice on her rights regarding her husband's decision.

(APRIL - 2025) FACULTY FEEBACK ON CLIENT COUNSELLING COMPETITION

NAME	DESIGNATION	HOW WOULD YOU RATE THE OVERALL ORGANISATION OF THE 1ST INTRA-COLLEGIATE CLIENT COUNSELLING COMPETITION?	HOW CLEAR IS THE JUDGMENT CRITERIA (SCORESHEET) PROVIDED FOR EVALUATING THE PARTICIPANTS?	HOW DO YOU RATE THE QUALITY AND KNOWLEDGE OF THE COUNSELS IN YOUR CHAMBER?	HOW DO YOU RATE THE QUALITY OF THE CLIENTS IN YOUR CHAMBER?	ANY SUGGESTIONS?
Saumya Shaji	Assistant Professor	EXCELLENT	VERY CLEAR	AVERAGE	VERY GOOD	NIL
Vineet	Assistant professor	EXCELLENT	CLEAR	AVERAGE	VERY GOOD	Counsels should be given some training for better performance.
Priyank Jagawanshi	Assistant Professor	EXCELLENT	VERY CLEAR	VERY GOOD	VERY GOOD	None
Dr Nyatundo George Oruongo	Assistant Professor in Law	EXCELLENT	VERY CLEAR	AVERAGE	VERY GOOD	Training would elevate the effect of program a lot. Otherwise, it was an amazing experience. Congratulations
Vidya A R	Assistant Professor	EXCELLENT	VERY CLEAR	VERY GOOD	EXCELLENT	Executed well. Even the students were well aware.
Ashbin Krishna	Assistant Professor	EXCELLENT	VERY CLEAR	EXCELLENT	EXCELLENT	Nil
Chindhu Joseph	Assistant Professor	EXCELLENT	VERY CLEAR	EXCELLENT	EXCELLENT	Nil
Deepti Thomas	Assistant Professor	VERY GOOD	VERY CLEAR	VERY GOOD	EXCELLENT	Nil
Shireen Sultana	Assistant Professor of Law	VERY GOOD	VERY CLEAR	VERY GOOD	AVERAGE	The Counsels somehow have to use their knowledge and wisdom instantly, but the clients were not able to deliver the facts in a proper way, they had to be briefed not only regarding facts but also what they want or what are their expectations. They would have been given a little extra training.
Boncy Mathew	Assistant Professor	VERY GOOD	VERY CLEAR	AVERAGE	VERY GOOD	Some clients were not clear with the details
Dr Koushik C	Assistant professor in Law	VERY GOOD	VERY CLEAR	VERY GOOD	AVERAGE	Clients need to be trained well especially the matrix
Surya Das	Assistant Professor	VERY GOOD	CLEAR	AVERAGE	VERY GOOD	NA

REPORT ON THE 1ST INTRA-COLLEGIATE CLIENT COUNSELLING COMPETITION

Date:	07.04.2025
Venue:	4th, 5th, 6th Floor Classrooms
Time:	10:00 am to 01:30 pm
Objective:	To provide law students with an opportunity to hone their client counselling skills in a realistic, professional setting.
Topic:	1st Intra-Collegiate Client Counselling
Attended By (Batch):	6th Semester, 8th Semester, 10th Semester BA LLB/ BBA LLB/ BCOM LLB
No. of Participants (Students & Faculty)	346 + 17
Faculty In charge	Mr. Kiran S. Sekhar, Ms. Suparna Mukherjee, Dr. Nandu Sam Jose, Ms. Priya Das
Outcome	By simulating real-life client meetings, participants were able to engage in critical problem-solving, communication, and legal analysis, which are essential for effective client representation.

On 7th April 2025, the Centre for Practical Advocacy Training (CPAT) hosted the 1st Intra-Collegiate Client Counselling Competition, a landmark event that aimed to enhance practical legal skills among law students. The competition saw an impressive participation of 85 teams, with a total of 14 chambers representing various law programs.

The primary goal of the competition was to provide law students with an opportunity to hone their client counselling skills in a realistic, professional setting. By simulating real-life client meetings, participants were able to engage in critical problem-solving, communication, and legal analysis, which are essential for effective client representation. Students were also able to refine their interpersonal skills, such as empathy, active listening, and providing clear legal advice. The event started with a briefing session for the clients and volunteers about their roles and responsibilities. The clients were explained about their respective factual matrices and the mannerisms expected of them. The event started at 10:00 am across 14 chambers with 3 clients and 7 teams for each chamber. This event proved to be highly beneficial for students, allowing them to gain hands-on experience in dealing with clients in a controlled environment.

Post conclusion a feedback form was circulated among the participants and judges. The feedback from participants and judges highlighted the competition's role in bridging the gap between theoretical legal education and practical application. Several insights were forwarded by the judges to improve upon the event. The participants also conveyed the strengthens and challenges that they faced.

14 teams from all the chambers were announced as the winners. Team Codes 7 (Advika Dwivedi & Adhyatam Chaturvedi), 15 (Annanya Singhal & Geetika Dev), 20 (Beradar Aakash & Aaryansh Agrawal), 26 (Divya Sethia & Merugu Abhigna), 34 (Gaana Shree & Rishab Baghmar), 43 (Jasleen Kaur Bahri & Mohd. Yasir Khan), 47 (Komal Goswami & Malavika Murali), 53 (Nandana R & Lavanya kadari), 57 (Nithin Thomas & Norbert James Johnson), 67 (Ruuhani Thukral & SA Malavika), 70 (Sai Sudeep & Srishti), 79 (Sonia Nehra & Khusi0, 82 (Sujit Parganiha & Dibyansh Bagaria) and 84 (Surya Gayathri & Mariya Parookkaran Thomas) were declared as the chamber toppers.

The event not only fostered a spirit of healthy competition but also reinforced the importance of professional conduct and client-oriented legal practice. Overall, it was a tremendous success, providing valuable insights and skills for future legal careers.
